

Born February 5, 1980 in the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Daniel was the first born of the family followed by eight children, two boys and six girls. His family was forced to leave DR Congo and flee to Uganda in 1996. During the war he lost most of his relatives and friends. He is now staying in the Kyangwali Refugee Camp. In August 2007 Daniel began attending Makerere University where he studies Information Technology and should graduate in 2010.

